WHAT FRIENDS ARE FOR

There is no doubt friendships play a vital role in everyone's lives and it would be hard to imagine life without them. But what is it that makes friends so important?

Firstly, it is obvious that friends stop you from feeling isolated and alone; just having a quick coffee and a chat or sharing a joke with someone on social media can make all the difference to your day. Secondly, friends are a way to better yourself. They can open your eyes to new ideas and broaden your horizons. They can also give you good advice when required, and show you when you are wrong, even when you don't want them to.

There was a time at school when I became involved with a bad crowd and I started behaving recklessly and I refused to listen to my parents. It took a good friend to point out the error of my ways and help me get back on the right track. Without that helping hand, I don't know what would have happened to me.

Friends come and go, but while they might not always be around, friends will always be there when you need them the most. (197 words)
